

Terezín Memorial

Terezín was founded as a fortress at the end of the 18th century. However, its recent past made the town a tragic symbol of the suffering of tens of thousands of innocent people who died there during the Nazi occupation of our country.

PAMÁTNÍK TEREZÍN

národní kulturní památka

Opening hours

From 1940 to 1945 the Small Fortress served as the Prague Gestapo prison and today bears witness to the persecution of the Czech nation under the Nazi regime during World War II.

Nov.1 – Mar. 31: daily 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Apr. 1 – Oct. 31: daily 8 a.m. – 6 p.m.

The Ghetto Museum was opened in the building of the former Terezín School in 1991. The Magdeburg Barracks opened in 1997 and also house the Meeting Centre.

Nov. 1 – Mar. 31: daily 9 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Apr. 1 – Oct. 31: daily 9 a.m. – 6 p.m.

Crematorium closed on Saturdays.

Nov.1 – Mar. 31: 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Apr. 1 – Oct. 31: 10 a.m. – 6 p.m.

Columbarium, Ceremonial Halls and Central Morgue.

Nov.1 – Mar. 31: daily 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Apr. 1 – Oct. 31: daily 9 a.m. – 6 p.m.

The Prayer room from the time of the Terezín ghetto in today's Dlouhá Street No. 17 was not discovered until the early 1990s.

Nov.1 – Mar. 31: daily 9 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Apr. 1 – Oct. 31: daily 9 a.m. – 6 p.m.

Closed on: Dec. 24 – Dec. 26 and Jan. 1.

Terezín Memorial – National Cultural Monument

Principova alej 304, 411 55 Terezín

Tel.: +420 416 782 225, 416 782 442,

416 782 131

GSM: +420 604 241 179, 606 632 914

E-mail: pamatnik@pamatnik-terezin.cz

www.pamatnik-terezin.cz