

“Through the Region of a Thousand Years of History”

The next of the cycling routes, called “Through the Region of a Thousand Years of History”, connects two important towns of Českomoravské pomezí, namely Svitavy and Litomyšl. On your stop in Svitavy you should definitely visit the local museum and gallery. Apart from the unique exposition of clothes washing devices, it also houses a permanent exhibition focusing on the life of Svitavy native Oskar Schindler. Another place worth seeing is the square with probably the second longest arcade in the Czech Republic. If you bike as far as Litomyšl and

“To Svojanov Castle and Its Fiery Swine”

“To Svojanov Castle and Its Fiery Swine” is the name of a cycleway, which leads from Polička as far as Svojanov Castle. Negotiating the undulating and hilly terrain is not easy, but Svojanov and Polička are definitely worth it. The town of Polička, a sought-after tourist destination, boasts a well-preserved fortification system and

“Amidst the Woods, Meadows and Fields”

Those not-so-great-history-lovers could choose the “Amidst the Woods, Meadows and Fields” route, which begins and ends in Litomyšl. It has an easy, gently undulating profile and with its length of 56 km it ranks among the longer routes. The cycleway leads through villages and settlements near Litomyšl, and on the way you will encounter the Church of the Sacred Cross and Vojnarka Farm in Trstěnice.”

you are not in a hurry, you can take a tour around the Renaissance Castle, which is on the UNESCO heritage list. But soon it's back into the saddle, and let's get those peddles moving ...

the birthplace of the world-famous composer Bohuslav Martinů. Svojanov offers various expositions and mainly during the holidays it is the venue of many cultural events.

Apart from the marked cycleways there are also countless forest and field paths, tracks and trails, so you can just peddle around and admire the surrounding scenery. It is entirely up to you what you choose to do ...
